LPN Bridge to RN

Associate of Science Registered Nursing

Academic & Career Pathway: Health Sciences

Student: Advisor:

| Student:                                    | _       | 1           | Advis     |                                      |           |
|---|---------|-------------|-----------|--------------------------------------|-----------|
| Course/Semester (Prefix,                    | Credits | Fall/Spring | Milestone | Notes                                | Completed |
| Number and Title)                           |         | Only        | Course    |                                      |           |
| Semester 1                                  |         |             |           |                                      |           |
| M121  | 3       |             |           |                                      |           |
| BIOH201 ANATOMY &                           | 4       |             |           |                                      |           |
| PHYSIOLOGY I W/ LAB                         |         |             |           |                                      |           |
| BIOH211 ANAT & PHYS II WITH                 | 4       |             |           |                                      |           |
| LAB   | _       |             |           |                                      |           |
| CHMY 121 GEN CHEM W/                        | 4       |             |           |                                      |           |
| LAB   | 2       |             |           |                                      |           |
| WRIT 101COLLEGE WRITING 1                   | 3       |             |           |                                      |           |
| Semester 2 The entry point                  |         |             |           | Bridge students enter the RN         |           |
| into the program aligns with                |         |             |           | program by attrition only. They      |           |
| semester 3 of the Registered                |         |             |           | must complete all prerequisite       |           |
| Nurse AS program, it is the                 |         |             |           | courses prior to admission.          |           |
| second semester for bridge                  |         |             |           | Must have an LPN license and 1       |           |
| students.                                   |         |             |           | year work experience as an LPN.      |           |
| NRSG256 PATHOPHYSIOLOGY                     | 3       |             |           | year work experience as an EFN.      |           |
|   |         |             |           |                                      |           |
| NRSG236 HEALTH /ILLNESSMATERNAL NURSING | 2       |             |           |                                      |           |
| NRSG237 MATERNAL NRSG                       | 1       |             |           |                                      |           |
| CLINICAL                                    | -       |             |           |                                      |           |
| PXYS100 INTRO TO PSYCH                      | 3       |             |           | May be taken prior to this semester. |           |
| Semester 3                                  |         |             |           |                                      |           |
| NRS244 ADULT NRSGII                         | 3       |             |           |                                      |           |
| NRSG245 ADULT NRSG II                       | 2       |             |           |                                      |           |
| CLINICAL                                    |         |             |           |                                      |           |
| NRSG254 MENTAL HEALTH                       | 3       |             |           |                                      |           |
| CONCEPTS                                    |         |             |           |                                      |           |
| NRSG255 MENTAL HEALTH                       | 1       |             |           |                                      |           |
| CLINICAL                                    |         |             |           |                                      |           |
| NRSG246 HEALTH/ILLNESS                      | 2       |             |           |                                      |           |
| CHILD & FAMILY                              |         |             |           |                                      |           |
| NRSG247 CHILD & FAMILY                      | 1       |             |           |                                      |           |
| CLINICAL                                    |         |             |           |                                      |           |
| SOCI101 INTRO TO SOCIOLOGY                  | 3       |             |           | May be taken prior to this semester. |           |
| Semester 4                                  |         |             |           |                                      |           |
| NRSG259 ADULT NRSG III                      | 3       |             |           |                                      |           |
| NRSG260 ADULT NRSG III LAB                  | 1       |             |           |                                      |           |
|   | 1       | 1           | 1         | 1                                    | 1         |

| NRSG 261 ADULT NRSG III  | 2 |  |                            |  |
|--------------------------|---|--|----------------------------|--|
| CLINICAL                 |   |  |                            |  |
| NRSG266 MANAGING CLIENT  | 2 |  |                            |  |
| CARE                     |   |  |                            |  |
| NRSG267 MANAGING CARE    | 2 |  |                            |  |
| CLINICAL                 |   |  |                            |  |
| BIOM250 MICROBIOLOGY FOR | 4 |  | May be taken prior to this |  |
| HEALTH SCIENCES WITH LAB |   |  | semester.                  |  |

*Students must earn a C- or better in order to successfully complete a course.